

High School Students

Services From college planning and preparation, to college selection and applications, high school students successfully achieve their college goals with CPSi's expert advice and guidance. Beginning with an in-depth interview of the student, CPSi makes customized recommendations for preparation and enhanced opportunities through a step-by-step plan that covers specific instructions to help the student discover a passion, suggestions for field of study options, and recommendations for all standardized tests, activities, internships, mentoring, academic improvements and other options to create a balanced student life. For college selection, CPSi's service includes a customized list of colleges selected for the student. Using a unique two-step system developed by CPSi, students choose the colleges where they will apply. For the college applications, CPSi's service includes essay brainstorming and outlining assistance, essay review, critique and editing to strengthen the student's essays. CPSi works one-on-one with students to develop a college application timeline, optimize applications, assist with college money issues, and helps with comparing college admission awards to make the final college selection. Getting Started To learn more about these topics and CPSi services for High School students, choose the option below that you prefer.

- Come to a FREE college planning and money seminar at CPSi's Bellevue office to learn the facts about admission and how to start now. Click to reserve a seminar online, or call 1-800-987-7625 to make reservations by phone.
- OR arrange a meeting with a consultant at CPSi's Bellevue office, or a phone conference if you do not live in the area. Call 1-800-987-7625 to request an evaluation meeting for the student and parent(s). The $250 fee for this meeting, payable by credit card at the time of scheduling, will be credited toward a CPSi program, if offered. College money and scholarship opportunities may also be discussed, if money is a concern. The meeting is ideal for the student and family who prefer to skip the informational seminar and quickly learn about their unique college admission opportunities.
